KAVARVI ARTIST AWARDS EVENT COLLABORATORS AGREEMENT

This agreement outlines terms and conditions between the Kavarvi Artist Awards (Organizers) and Event Collaborators.

Definitions

1. "Event" refers to the Kavarvi Artist Awards ceremony.
2. "Collaborators" include performers, sponsors, partners, or support staff.
3. "Organizers" are the Kavarvi Artist Awards management team.

Collaboration Terms

1. Collaborators will provide specified services (performance, sponsorship, support).
2. Organizers will provide necessary resources, information, and coordination.
3. Collaborators must adhere to event schedules, guidelines, and rules.
4. Collaborators are responsible for their equipment, materials, and personnel.

The event guidelines emphasize adhering to schedules, rules, and regulations, professional conduct, intellectual property respect, and timely communication. Additional rules may include respect for team members, volunteers, attendees, safety protocols, unauthorized materials, venue rules, and branding or logo use.

Partnership Categories

• Venue Partners: Provide event spaces or facilities. • Investments: Financial support for events. • Prize and Gift Sponsor: Donate awards or gifts. • New Leads and Potential Customers: Access new audiences and markets. • Brand Awareness: Enhance visibility through event promotion. • Innovative Marketing Ideas: Leverage creative strategies. • Potential Registrations: Drive contestant participation. • PR Campaigns/Celebrity Contacts: Tap into influential networks. • Product Creation Collaboration: Develop exclusive products. • Food and Beverage: Catering services for events. • Promotional Discounts: Exclusive offers for contestants and attendees. • Local Organizations: Partner with community groups. • Services on Site: Provide photography, videography, or other services. • Cross-Functional Contests: Jointly host contests or competitions. • Tech Support: Provide technical expertise. • VJ/Voice-over: Offer audiovisual services.

Collaborators' Responsibilities

1. Service Delivery: Provide agreed services in line with event schedule and guidelines.
2. Promotion and Marketing: Share promotional materials on social media for event visibility.
3. Coordination and Communication: Collaborate with event organizers and provide necessary information.
4. Resource Provision: Supply equipment, materials, and personnel as agreed.
5. Event Representation: Enhance organization's reputation and support event success.

Organizers' Responsibilities

1. Acknowledge Collaborators' contributions on event platforms.

Payment and Benefits

1. Compensation terms (if applicable) will be outlined before the event.
2. Collaborators receive event recognition, networking opportunities, and promotional exposure.

Consequences of Breaking Collaboration Terms

- Either party can terminate collaboration with written notice, specifying reasons.
- Disputes resolved through negotiation, mediation, or arbitration.
- If event collaborators breach the collaboration agreement, the following actions may be taken:
- Collaborators receive a written warning outlining the issues and are asked to rectify the issue within a specified timeframe.
- Termination: Collaboration agreement termination results in removal from the event and future collaborations. Public announcement of collaboration termination if required, and forfeiture of payments or investment refunds.
